

Jesus said to his disciples: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky."

Mark 13:24-27

CONFERENCE

THANKSGIVING: We will be packing Thanksgiving baskets on Friday, November 20 and distributing on Saturday, November 21.

Items needed: Canned Sweet Potatoes, Cranberry Sauce, Stuffing Mix, Cake Mixes, Flour & Sugar, Canned Corn, Beans or Peas.

We are anticipating doing 70+ baskets. The amount of vegetables we give depends on the size of the family. The least amount would be 2 cans per family, which only amounts to about 6 servings, but totals 140 cans. We need 300+ cans of vegetables. Our present stock is probably 100 cans and they will be used for weekly food orders. Your caring and sharing will provide these needy families with a Thanksgiving meal. God bless you!!

THE RELENTLESS PASSAGE OF TIME

On Monday morning a couple of weeks ago, after the 6:30 a.m. Mass, Deacon Joe and I were waiting in the chapel foyer after Mass to greet those who had attended. Immediately after the early morning Mass, they say some brief prayers together. During that time, Deacon Joe and I waited.

As we waited, we took the opportunity to comment upon the beautiful, sunny morning. We realized that this was a "gift" to us because of daylight savings time which had just happened the day before. We also realized that we would have very few more mornings of being able to look at the sun. In a couple of weeks, it will be dark as night once again at that time of morning and will remain that way until late winter, early spring when the days begin to lengthen once again.

It amazes me how time continues its relentless pursuit and we are powerless to do anything about it. It seems as if the only thing we can do is to observe it as it happens.

Before you know it, Thanksgiving will be here (one week from this Thursday already!) and, after that, Christmas.

Immediately following Christmas, a brand new year begins. Before you know it, Easter will have come and gone and then summer vacation, the beginning of school, and we will be here on November 15th once again.

We can begrudge that or we can "sit back and enjoy the ride."

God gives us so much day by day.

The beauty of each new day can easily be lost if we focus too much on what has passed or what will come. We can worry and fret about yesterday or tomorrow and fail to see what is waiting for us this very day.

Let us not lose sight of His many gifts because we get too caught up in the fleeting passage of time. Instead, take today for what it has to offer. It does have much to offer.

After all, we were given another day of life again today, were we not?

Enjoy the day.

THANKS

Speaking of time marching relentlessly, a couple of weeks ago, I celebrated another birthday. Allow me to take this opportunity to THANK all of you who sent me greetings, gave me gifts, and let me know in all sorts of ways how much you care for me.

I appreciate it more than I can say!

Fr. Mike

In Memoriam

Priests and deacons have served the Diocese of Gary more than fifty years. Others have served in the territory that is now the Diocese of Gary. Please pray for those men who have been called to God and whose anniversaries of death are this week:

FORTY HOURS

Next Sunday, November 22nd, our annual Forty Hours celebration will begin.

On Sunday immediately after the Noon Mass as well as Monday and Tuesday immediately after the 8:30 a.m. Mass, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed on the main altar of the church so that the faithful may come and adore the Lord.

Each evening at 7:00 p.m., adoration will close with special evening prayers.

Our guest speaker for this year's Forty Hours is Fr. Dominic Bertino. Fr. Bertino is the pastor of St. Bridget Church in Hobart.

Fr. Bertino was the speaker at a Forty Hours here at St. Thomas More during the pastorate of Msgr. Weis. It will be nice to have him back again and hear him speak.

Please mark your calendars for these three special days.

THANKSGIVING DAY MASS

Please remember that next week, Thursday, November 26th, there will be only one Mass for Thanksgiving Day. That Mass will be at 9:00 a.m. God is so good to us. If at all possible, come to thank Him for His great love.

Please bring canned goods with you as well to donate to St. Vincent de Paul's Food Pantry.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

A church had a man in the choir who couldn't sing. Several people hinted to him that he could serve in other places, but he continued to come to the choir.

The choir director became desperate and went to the pastor.

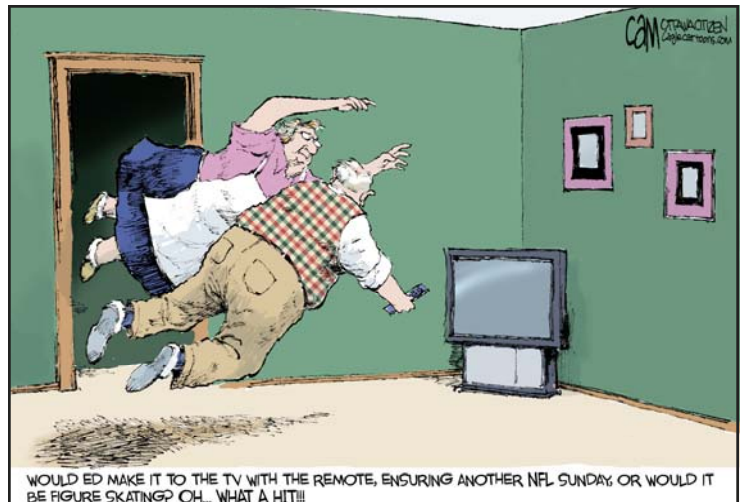

"You've got to get that man out of the choir," he said. "If you don't, I'm going to resign. The choir members are going to quit, too. Please do something."

So the pastor went to the man and suggested, "Perhaps you should leave the choir."

"Why should I get out of the choir?" he asked.

"Well, five or six people have told me you can't sing."

That's nothing," the man snorted. "Fifty people have told me that you can't preach!"

Holy Name News

Our next meeting will take place on Monday, November 16th in the Solar Room. The meeting starts at 7:30 pm. Come early at 7:00 pm for the praying of the rosary. Video and pizza/refreshments will conclude the meeting. New members are welcome! Our discussion will include our next fundraiser, our Annual Lenten Fish Fry and raffle. Please "save the date" Friday, February 26th, 2010.

St. Thomas More School

Thank You, Mrs. Teresa Moisoff

After thirty-five dedicated years of service to the students of St. Thomas More School, Mrs. Terri Moisoff has begun the next chapter of her life after retiring on November 6th. Mrs. Moisoff started teaching first grade at St. Thomas More in 1974, and has continued to teach the many young and eager children who entered her first grade classroom ever since, educating 825 STMS students in her distinguished career. Mrs. Moisoff was honored with a surprise All-School Mass on November 5th, allowing the entire student body to say farewell to this beloved teacher. She was presented with a personalized Papal Blessing, presented by Fr. Mike, and her very own St. Thomas More school diploma.

She was once again honored at a retirement party given by the faculty and staff of the school later at the Cornerstone Center. Thank you, Mrs. Moisoff, for your many years of loving service as a Catholic role model and inspiration to all who have had the honor to know you.

If you would like to send Mrs. Moisoff your congratulatory wishes, you may still do so by addressing any correspondence to her c/o St. Thomas More School and it will be forwarded to her.

Thoughts on Stewardship of Treasure

How good do you feel when you do something for someone and they genuinely say "Thank you"? Now imagine how you are going to feel when God greets you with his open arms and loving embrace in thanks for being a good steward.
