Stewardship REFLECTION

"Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread."

1 CORINTHIANS 10:17

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us.

We are called to be fed and to feed others. Living a stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a twofold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it helps us strengthen each other's relationship with God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It becomes our roadmap to Heaven. Let's help each other get there!

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

Years ago, a woman at daily Mass approached me in the communion procession. She had her arms crossed, indicating she wanted a blessing instead of the Sacred Host. She had tears in her eyes. I gave her a little blessing. She returned the next day. And the next. The same thing repeated. After a few weeks, I asked her why she didn't receive Holy Communion. She said she wasn't Catholic yet and was preparing to become so. I asked her why she wanted to be Catholic. She said, "Because I long to be in a real communion with Christ and with everyone I love." That, I submit, is a darn good reason. A few months later, she became Catholic and received the Body and Blood of Christ with unspeakably great joy and still does to this day.

Saint Paul says of the Eucharistic bread, "Is it not a participation in the body of Christ?" For Paul, the answer is obvious. Yes, it is exactly that. Which is why he can say, "we, though many, are one body." Jesus is truly, really, and substantially present in the Holy Eucharist. This is no magic trick, but a mystery of our salvation. He feeds us with the Sacrament of his body so that our communion with him — and with the other members of his body — is built up and becomes mature. That's why the Eucharist quenches our deep thirst for love and communion.

The Body and Blood of Christ is the best reason to be Catholic.

It's our participation of love in the one we love.

Eucharistic Ministers Requested

"For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes again."

The Eucharist truly sits at the center of our faith and sharing this Blessed Sacrament makes us one.

We need additional

THE SACRAMENT THAT MAKES US ONE

"Food, glorious food! What wouldn't we give for
That extra bit more — That's all that we live for
Why should we be fated to
Do nothing but brood
Oh food, Magical food, Wonderful food,
Marvelous food, Fabulous food,
Beautiful food, Glorious food!"

~ Food, Glorious Food from the Musical, Oliver!

Food is certainly something that occupies the minds and hearts of many individuals. (Perhaps, for some of us, it occupies too much of the mind!) We all have our favorites meals and our favorite restaurants. We all have places that we go to eat on a regular basis and places that we would never visit again based upon one bad experience.

Food is something that is a part of the very fabric of our lives. We celebrate with food, we commiserate with food, and we bury our anxieties and sadness with food. We enjoy sharing our food with others and generally are busy thinking about our next meal.

We know that we need food to survive. Without it, we will starve to death. If we go without food long enough, our bodies will begin to consume themselves, using up all stored fat and then attacking the proteins in the systems that we need to live. Starving to death can be a very ugly and painful way to die.

Just as we need food to live our lives here on the earth, we also need spiritual food to nourish our souls. Jesus told us that His flesh was real food and His blood was real drink. Unless we eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, Jesus told us, we would have no life within us.

Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We in the older generation will remember the Solemnity being called Corpus Christi. On this day, we remember that Jesus gives us His very Body and Blood to eat and drink. That is the food that sustains our souls just as the food that we eat daily sustains our bodies. Just as without food, our bodies perish, without the spiritual food of the Eucharist, our souls are in danger of suffering that same fate.

On this solemnity, I am always sad for those who do not recognize the gift of the Eucharist as well as for those who have separated themselves from the Eucharist. That sacrament is what binds us and makes us one as it sustains and nourishes us. It, truly, is the Source and Summit of our Christian lives.

FAITH ACTION: Pray that all people may come to know the sustaining, nourishing gift of the Eucharist and that they may receive the Lord worthily and with great reverence.

Fr. Mike

OUR PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

On Pentecost Sunday at the 10:00 a.m. Mass, we asked the Holy Spirit to select four members who would replace the four who are leaving the council after their three year terms. Thank you to Bernadine Barrett, Carolyn Cenko, Christi Kordeck, and Eric Miller for their three years of service.

Congratulations to Bill McCullough, Michael Popovich, Michael Sajn, and Patty Queroz who are our newest members of the Pastoral Council for the next four years.

Thank you to all who discerned council selection and to all who led the discernment sessions. We are so blessed to have you all.

HEARTFELT THANKS

I never would have thought, when I arrived at our parish on July 1st of 2003, that I would still be here twenty years later. Yet, here I am.

As I celebrate forty years of priesthood and twenty years as your pastor, I take this opportunity to thank you for the many kindnesses that you have shown to me through the years and, most specifically, for what you have done for me at my ordination anniversary celebration.

I have received too many gifts to enumerate. The gift cards, cash, and other assorted gifts have truly touched my heart. You know, as a rather committed extrovert, that I am rarely at a loss for words. However, the kindness and generosity shown to me at this time render me speechless.

Please allow this simple attempt to say thank you express my profound gratitude for what you have done. In the twenty years that I have been here, I have truly come to love the members of this parish as well as the members of our community of Munster.

A special thanks to all who organized the festivities on my anniversary weekend as well as in the school the week before. I was blown away. Please know that I realize the amount of time that went into pulling everything off without a hitch. God bless you for your generosity to me. Thank you all, once again, from the bottom of my heart.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

A waiter brought the customer the meal he ordered. The waiter's thumb was on the steak. "Are you crazy?" yelled the customer, "with your hand on my steak?" "What?!" answered the waiter. "You want it to fall on the floor again?"

Career & College Readiness

Each month, 7th & 8th grade students have the opportunity to meet an esteemed member of the business community to learn about their profession, their education and their career path. Last month we had the honor of welcoming 1980 STMS alumna and micro-biologist, Dr. Carolyn "Carrie" Jones, Dean of Natural & Computational Sciences at Hawai'i Pacific University in Kane'ohe, Hawaii. We are so grateful for her time and informative presentation.

New STMS National Junior Honor Society Inducted

St. Thomas More School is once again proud to welcome new members to our Robert B. Weis Chapter of the National Junior Honor Society.

Each year our chapter inducts students into NJHS who exemplify and promote values of scholarship, service, leadership, character and citizenship within our school and community. Twenty new 6th, 7th and 8th grade students were inducted in a May ceremony before the school's student body. We applaud and congratulate each of them.
